A MODEST REQUIREMENT.

"Wanted—The Most Beautiful Woman in the World."
Ardmoreite Special.
New York, Nov. 25.—"Wanted—The most beautiful woman in the world."

That is the modest requirement of Al H. Woods, who is organizing a company to produce a melodrama with the alluring title, "Nellie, the Beautiful Clock Model," the production of Owen Davis.

Woods is using large space in the dramatic papers for a perfect specimen of femininity to star as the clock model. His demands are a trifling exaggeration, to say the least of it, since it is specified that applicants for this engagement must possess the form of the Venus de Medici, the beauty of Helen of Troy, the fascination of Cleopatra, the seductiveness of Du Barry, and the winsomeness of Marie Antoinette.

"Money figure is no object," extravagantly asserts this Rockefeller of melodrama, "and personal figure is everything." Neither is a high grade of ability as an actress a requirement.
The fortunate lady will do a thinking part and will travel on her shape.
She may have the voice of a fobhorn and the intellect of a diadapper, and yet make good. "If you haven't a perfect form you needn't come around," says Woods, who also gives evidence of a suspicious nature by demanding that "the curves must be nature's own." No cotton batts will go with Al. He wants a real flesh and blood and bones article and not any spurious imitation.

Hundreds of applicants have besieged the office of Woods, but few have at all approached the requirements necessary to secure the engagement.
One of these has been selected by the manager, as very nearly meeting his demands, and will be given the coveted place in case the perfect American Venus doesn't put in an appearance.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphrey, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. F. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to war-off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by P. J. Ramsey, W. R.
Frame, Ardmore Drug Co., and Benner & Becker.

The ring of the almighty dollar adds appreciably to the satisfaction a girl derives from her engagement ring.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

MISSOURI LYNCHING CASES.

State Claims to Have Discovered Much New Evidence.

Ardmoreite Special.
Springfield, Mo., Nov. 25.—At the November term of the criminal division of the Green county circuit court, which opened today, J. Hill Gooch and Daniel D. Galbraith will again be tried on a charge of complicity in the lynching of three negroes, Coker, Allen, and Duncan, on the night of April 14, last. The attorneys for the state claim to have discovered a great deal of new evidence and it is likely that many new witnesses will be called.
Prosecuting Attorney Patterson will have the assistance of both Attorney General Hadley and Assistant Attorney General Kennish. More than 500 subpoenas for witnesses have already been served.

The lynching of the three negroes attracted wide attention throughout the country. They were hanged to a statue of Liberty on the public square, and this ironical circumstance alone caused much comment. One of the victims of the mob was charged with criminal assault. The unwritten law demanded his death and speedy justice was meted out by the angry citizens. Two other negroes, charged only with minor offenses, were later hanged by the mob, mad with the lust of blood, and a reign of terror for both whites and blacks ensued.

Aside from any question of the guilt or innocence of the accused men, it is evident that the majority of the people of Springfield are strong in the hope that Gooch and Galbraith will be acquitted. Race hatred is strong here, as in nearly all southern Missouri cities, and it is generally admitted that the lynching and riots were out the logical culmination of a long period of continual friction between the races.

A Young Mother at 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had resulted in her being unable to do any thing, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity which she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets stomach, liver and kidneys right, purifies the blood, and cures malaria, biliousness and weaknesses. Wonderful

MAY HANG NEGRO IN KANSAS.

Negro Soldier Charged with Murder of His Sweetheart.

Ardmoreite Special.
Topeka, Kan., Nov. 25.—A marriage case of unusual interest will be tried at the November term of the United States circuit court, which opened today. Robert Teilles, formerly a negro soldier at Fort Riley, is charged with slaying his sweetheart, Martha Arles-bridge, on the military reservation at the fort, and the problem which is vexing the court officials is whether Teilles will be hanged in the event of conviction. The fact that life imprisonment is the penalty for murder under the state laws has caused the average citizen to look with misgiving upon the capital punishment meted out by the federal authorities, and it is considered doubtful if a jury can be secured that will send the negro to the gallows. There have been 10 legal hangings in Kansas since the law was passed requiring the governor to assume the responsibility for sending a man to the gallows.

It is alleged that Teilles murdered his dusky sweetheart because of intentions shown her by other soldiers.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer as large as my hand, from my daughters' hip was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica

W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at City Drug
